

WINTER WORKSHOP

Saturday, January 30, 2010
8:30 am - 4:30 pm (6 CEU Hours)

The Play Therapy Process- Lessons Learned From a Traumatized Boy Mary Morrison, PhD, LPC-S, NCC, RPT-S

The journey of a therapist and a traumatized child will be presented in this interactive workshop. Through this case study, many aspects of the play therapy process will be discussed including trauma, play themes, relationship development, and parent involvement. Video clips and experiential activities will be used in this interactive workshop.

Workshop attendees will be able to:

- Identify the difference between play behaviors and play themes and use them effectively in conceptualizing clients
- Be aware of the significance of the client-counselor relationship and its impact on both the child and the counselor and how it impacts the play therapy process.
- Identify trauma play and its power for children in the healing process of play therapy.
- Identify useful ways to involve the family in the play therapy process.
